

Security Release Request

Please fax your completed request to 1300 857 033 or mail to GPO Box 4799 Sydney NSW 2001

Important Instructions

- Please read the "Things you need to know when releasing a security" as this contains important information about how we will process your request.
- If there are more than two (2) accounts or securities, please attach an additional copy of this form.
- Please allow up to five (5) working days for your Security Release Request Form to be actioned.
- Citibank will provide a payout figure within three (3) working days prior to the settlement date. Once the payout figure is provided, Citibank will suspend use of any loan account that is closing and/or place a funds hold on any loan account where the limit is reducing which means I/we will not be able to transact on these accounts during this time. The amount of the funds hold will equal the net limit reduction for that account. Please refer to the "Things you need to know when releasing a security" for further details.
- To update your contact details and/or mailing address, simply sign into Citibank online (www.citibank.com.au) and click on the "My Profile" link.

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN RELEASING A SECURITY

Please take the time to read the following important information concerning the release of your security and your banking arrangements.

Booking settlement

1. Please send your completed Security Release Request form to Citibank allowing five (5) working days for preparation of the release of security and the payout amount to be calculated.
2. A booking to arrange the date for release of security and to obtain a payout amount must be made at least five (5) working days in advance of your settlement date.

Fees and charges

3. There will be fees and charges associated with the release of security. Please refer to https://www.citibank.com.au/aus/home_loans/pdf/fee_schedule.pdf for details of fees and charges

Suspension of account / Funds hold on account

4. Citibank will provide a payout figure within three (3) working days prior to the settlement date. Once the payout figure is provided, Citibank will suspend use of any loan account that is closing and/or place a funds hold on any loan account where the limit is reducing, which means I/we will not be able to transact on these accounts during this time. The amount of the funds hold will equal the net limit reduction for that account.
5. If a funds hold is placed on a loan account where the limit is reducing, you will still be able to withdraw funds up to the amount of the reduced limit after settlement.
6. Any deposit made to your account(s) that is not cleared by the date your payout amount is calculated cannot be used to reduce your payout amount. If your loan accounts are closing, any credit balance remaining upon closure will be returned to you as per your instruction for surplus funds in Section D.
7. Your Citibank credit card is not affected by the release of your security and therefore will not have any hold placed on the account.

Alternate banking arrangements for closing accounts

8. We strongly recommend that you make alternative banking arrangements to meet your transactional needs prior to your account(s) being closed. To view Citibank's range of savings accounts please visit www.citibank.com.au.
9. If you have an Offset Mortgage account that is closing, the linked Offset Savings account will close within 60 days after the closure of your Offset Mortgage account. Until the Offset Savings account is closed, your access to ATM and internet banking will remain in place. If you would like to open an alternate transaction account please visit www.citibank.com.au.
10. If your salary is deposited into an account that is closing, you will need to contact your payroll officer to make alternate arrangements and ensure that these arrangements are in place five (5) working days prior to settlement.
11. We recommend that you withdraw enough money from your account(s) to cover normal expenses leading up to your security release settlement, prior to the payout amount being calculated and transactions being suspended.
12. For direct debits and direct credits such as insurance payments, periodical debits, funds transfers, rental payments, Centerlink payments and family assistance payments, you will need to contact the relevant parties to make alternate payment arrangements at least five (5) working days prior to settlement.
13. Please ensure that you cancel any regular payment authorities that are linked to your Citibank Debit card. Citibank is unable to cancel these authorities on your behalf as they are agreements between yourself and your merchant.
14. If you have a Citibank credit card that is paid each month by debiting your home loan account(s), please contact CitiPhone Banking on 13 24 84 to make alternate arrangements for your credit card payments five (5) working days prior to settlement.
15. If you want to close your Citibank credit card, please contact CitiPhone Banking on 13 24 84 to obtain a payout amount for your Citibank credit card and details of how the payment can be made. The payout of your Citibank credit card is not included in the repayment of your home loan.

Closing statement(s)

16. Your closing statement(s) will be issued to you within 10 working days after your release settlement date.
17. If you have been receiving your statement(s) by mail, your closing statement will be sent to the address as previously provided by you and held on our records.
18. If you have been receiving your home loan statement(s) electronically, your closing statement(s) will be available at Citibank Online. If you will no longer have access to Citibank Online, please contact CitiPhone Banking on 13 24 84 to arrange for a copy to be mailed.

Surplus funds

19. We will credit your Offset Savings account, a Citibank account in the same name as the home loan account or mail a bank cheque for the surplus funds to the address as previously provided by you and held on our records, within five (5) working days after your discharge settlement date. If you provide an ineligible Citibank account, this may cause delays in the receipt of any surplus funds as we may need to issue a bank cheque.
20. If you have a court order that details a specific arrangement for the disbursement of surplus funds, please ensure that you have indicated this in Section D and provide a copy of the sealed court order with the Security Release Request form.
21. If you do not have an Offset Savings account, a Citibank account in the same name as the home loan account or a court order, we will issue a single bank cheque for the surplus funds in the same name(s) as the home loan account holders. The bank cheque will be sent to the nominated primary contact in Section A. If Section A is not completed we will send the bank cheque to the primary account holder at the address as previously provided by you and held on our records.
22. Please allow additional time for postage where a cheque has been mailed. Citibank is not liable for any delays in the mail and/or any interest loss as a result of delays outside of our control.
